THE GUIDE

The Member Magazine
for WTTW and WFMT

A summer of concerts live on WFMT

Thomas Wilkins conducts the Grant Park Music Festival
from the South Shore
Cultural Center

Friday, July 29, 6:30 pm

July 2016

ALSO INSIDE:

On WTTW, it's a month of mystery with Agatha Christie specials, Luther with Idris Elba, Dancing on the Edge, The Tunnel, and a new season of Masterpiece Mystery! Inspector Lewis.

Air Check

Dear Member,

Greetings! Summer in Chicago is a time to get out and about, and both WTTW and WFMT are out in the community during these warmer months. We're bringing PBS Kids walk-around character Nature Cat outdoors to engage with kids around the city and suburbs, encouraging them to discover the natural world in their own back yards; and we recently launched a new Chicago Loop app, which you can download to join Geoffrey Baer and explore our great city and its architectural wonders like never before. And on musical front, WFMT is proud to bring you live summer concerts from the Ravinia and Grant Park festivals; this month, in a first for the station, we will be bringing you a special Grant Park concert from the South Shore Cultural Center with the Grant Park Orchestra led by guest conductor Thomas Wilkins. Remember that you can take all of this content with you on your phone. Go to iTunes to download the WTTW/PBS Video app, the new WTTW Chicago's Loop app, and the WFMT app for Apple and Android.

This month on WTTW11 and wttw.com, weekend nights in July offer a variety of exciting new content from Great Britain. On Fridays, join us for a new season of the wildly popular The Great British Baking Show; on Saturdays, enjoy a new series of Agatha Christie mysteries and more installments of Luther with Idris Elba. Sundays, settle into mysteries with Dancing on the Edge, The Tunnel, and a new season of Masterpiece Mystery! Inspector Lewis. Chicago Tonight provides exclusive cross-platform reports from the Republican and Democratic National Conventions, at the special time of 10:00 pm and online; we premiere a new season of Wild Travels, a quirky installment of Islands Without Cars from Sweden, and a new world music special from the Old Town School of Folk Music. WTTW's digital series Chat, Please! serves up a new webisodes all summer long and, last but not least, WTTW brings you the annual Independence Day celebration from Washington, D.C., A Capitol Fourth.

On 98.7WFMT and wfmt.com, July offers live broadcasts from the Grant Park Music Festival, with guest artists including the National Youth Choir of Scotland, conductor Marin Alsop, and violinist Rachel Barton Pine. Our Lyric Opera repeats conclude on Saturdays with Romeo and Juliet and Rusalka, and we follow these with specials from the Los Angeles Opera. And to honor Independence Day, we'll have a mini-festival of American music from July 1-4.

We hope all of this, and much more, enhances your enjoyment of the summertime in Chicago.

Sincerely,

Dan Schmidt
President & CEO

Screening: T-Rex: Her Fight for Gold

WTTW, in partnership with the Department of Cultural Affairs, presents a free screening of the Independent Lens documentary T-Rex: Her Fight for Gold.

Flint, Michigan, a city made famous by Michael Moore's documentary Roger & Me, and more recently by the lead poisoning water crisis, has been hard-hit for years as factories closed, jobs left, and crime, unemployment, and poverty became endemic. It's the most unlikely and challenging of backgrounds for an Olympic athlete. But Claressa "T-Rex" Shields is as tough as they come. This is the coming-of-age story of boxing phenom Claressa Shields, who was just 17 years old when she won the Olympic gold medal for women's boxing in 2012. Now with a record of 69-1, she is ranked number one in the world heading into her second Olympic competition this summer in Rio de Janeiro.

$10 Off Tickets to Chicago Dance Crash

Inspired by a growing demand for Chicago Dance Crash's street dance aesthetic, Evil & Good utilizes Chicago Dance Crash's (CDC) signature blend of concert dance and hip-hop, offering a boiled-down alternative to its summer annual movement play: sheer, pulse-raising dance. Throwing CDC's movement capacity into overdrive, CDC and special guest Culture Shock Chicago choreograph this explosive full-length conceptual piece featuring a hip-hop blend inspired by the world's constant struggle between its angels and demons.

Tickets available July 8-16; performances at Vittum Theatre in Wicker Park, 1012 N. Noble in Chicago. WTTW members save $10 on each $25 ticket. Use code WTTW to purchase tickets at chicagodancecrash.com or call the box office at (773) 342-4141. Limit four tickets per order. Not applicable with other discounts or on previously purchased tickets. Additional fees may apply. Based on availability.

2-for-1 Tickets to the World Premiere of CHOPS

WTTW Members have the exclusive opportunity to receive 2-for-1 tickets to the World Premiere of CHOPS. Directed by Jeff Award Winner Richard Shavzin and written by Chicago playwright Michael Rychlewski, this quintessentially Chicago play tells the story of three middle-aged jazz freaks who were the Kings of Rush Street at its peak in the '50s and '60s. The only problem is that it's 1984, and those glory days are gone. In this potent cocktail of jazz, frayed friendships, and testosterone, they still need to prove they have the chops.

Previews July 7 and runs through August 14 at Theater Wit at 1229 W. Belmont Street in Chicago. This offer is valid on general admission tickets. Please call (773) 975-8150 or visit theaterwit.org and use code "WTTW" when purchasing tickets.

$5 Off Tickets to A Midsummer Night's Dream

WTTW Members have the exclusive opportunity to receive $5 off tickets to First Folio Theatre's Shakespeare Under the Stars production of A Midsummer Night's Dream

Pack a picnic and experience the Shakespearean classic that the Chicago Sun-Times says "speaks directly to the trees and moonlight." This is the perfect show for families to laugh at the antics of the mischievous

Puck as this fantastical fairy turns the world upside-down for the quartet of lovers and the crazed Bottom, driving them to wild antics in the forest, all in the beautiful outdoor environment of the historic Mayslake Peabody Estate!

Playing at Mayslake Peabody Estate, 1717

W. 31st Street in Oak Brook, this show runs July 9 through August 14. This offer is valid for any Wednesday or Thursday performance. Please call (630) 986.8067 or visit firstfolio.org and use code "WTTW" when purchasing tickets.

2-for-1 Tickets to Menotti's The Consul

Inspired by true events, this Pulitzer Prize-winning opera is sure to spark conversation as it tells of a refugee during the Cold War and the challenges she faces in trying to create a better life for her family.

For 2-for-1 admission to Main Street Opera's production of Gian Carlo Menotti's The Consul, use code "WFMTTC" when calling (224) 764-1615. Performance date and locations vary. July 8 at 7:30 pm and July 10 at 2:00 pm, Cutting Hall, 150 East Wood Street in Palatine; July 17 at 2:00 pm, Bartlett Community Center, 700 South Bartlett Road in Bartlett; July 22 at 7:45 pm, IAET at Alta Villa, 430 North Addison Road in Addison (dinner and cocktails at 6:30 pm); and July 24 at 3:00 pm, Chicago Temple, First United Methodist Church, 77 West Washington Street in Chicago.

FOR DOZENS OF OTHER DISCOUNTS, visit wfmt.com and, under the Support WFMT menu, click on "Monthly Offers," or call (312) 987-WFMT for a recorded message.

The Nine Months That Made You

(Parts 2 and 3)

Research reveals that a time you can't remember – the nine months you spend in the womb – could have more lasting effects on you today than your lifestyle or genes. It is one of the most powerful and provocative new ideas in human science, and it was pioneered by a British scientist, Professor David Barker. This three-part series examines how your time in the womb could affect your health, personality, and even the lives of your children.

The Real Adam Smith: A Personal Exploration by Johan Norberg

This two-part film takes an intriguing look at the “father of modern economics” Adam Smith and the evolution and relevance of his revolutionary ideas today, both economic and ethical. It’s difficult to imagine that a man who lived with horse-drawn carriages and sailing ships could foresee our massive 21st century global market exchange, but Smith was no ordinary 18th century figure. Norberg explores Smith’s insights regarding free trade and the nature of wealth to the present, where they are thriving and driving the world’s economy.

John Paul Stevens

Unexpected Justice: The Rise of John Paul Stevens

In the spring of 1969, a corruption scandal rocked the Illinois Supreme Court. The investigation that followed thrust John Paul Stevens into the public eye, and in the process, launched him on the path to the United States Supreme Court. Narrated by Peter Coyote, this locally produced film explores a fascinating chapter of Chicago's scandal-rich history, and features the unforgettable character whose allegations started it all—an irascible citizen gadfly named Sherman Skolnick.

Agatha Christie: Partners in Crime

Belgian detective Hercule Poirot and spinster sleuth Miss Marple weren't Dame Agatha Christie's only creations. She also invented Tommy and Tuppence Beresford, an ordinary married couple who stumble into spy craft and end up being rather good at it. In these sparkling new adaptations of two classic mysteries, set in 1950s Britain at the start of the Cold War, Tommy and Tuppence return to the small screen, bickering, sweet on each other, and soon, knee-deep in danger.

Islands Without Cars: Sweden's Southwestern Archipelago

On Marstrandson, we learn about Sweden's most infamous criminal cross-dresser, see an exhibit on Sweden's most notorious film star, and experience a Midsummer night celebration complete with music and dance around a maypole. From there, we head to an old fashioned guesthouse with very modern culinary creations on the island of Styrsö, and end up on Vrangö to explore its maritime culture on the open sea and in the kitchen. Hosted by Kira Hesser.

Masterpiece Mystery! Inspector Lewis

(New Season)

Kevin Whately and Laurence Fox return for all-new season of the beloved Inspector Lewis series. As Lewis struggles to adjust to life in retirement, Hathaway has resolved his crisis of crime-fighting faith during an extended break from the force and earned his promotion to Inspector. But the presence of murder and mayhem in the seemingly perfect academic haven of Oxford remains unaltered, requiring the intuitive experience of Lewis and the cool intellect of Hathaway to tackle three riveting new cases.

Andris Nelsons

From Carnegie Hall

From now through September we'll have some Friday-night performances from the star-studded 2015-16 season at New York's Carnegie Hall. We begin with the gala that opened the season, featuring the New York Philharmonic led by music director Alan Gilbert, with Yevgeny Kissin performing a Tchaikovsky favorite, the Piano Concerto #1. The concert opens with a Carnegie Hall commission, Vivo by Magnus Lindberg, a former Philharmonic composer-in-residence. The second broadcast features the Boston Symphony with its new, critically-acclaimed music director, Andris Nelsons, leading Rachmaninoff's Symphonic Dances. To open the concert Nelsons chose Prokofiev's Alexander Nevsky, with the Tanglewood Festival Chorus and mezzo-soprano Nadezhda Serdyuk, a soloist with Russia's Mariinsky Opera Company.

Fridays, July 1 and 8, 8:00 pm

All prerecorded music on 98.7WFMT is provided by the Richard and Mary L. Gray Music Library.

Most live performances on 98.7WFMT are broadcast from the Fay and Daniel Levin Performance Studio.

PoetryNow with the Poetry Foundation

If you've ever been curious about why and how a poem gets made, PoetryNow is a weekly four-minute feature that offers an audio immersion into the concept of a poem. Listen to and follow the inner workings of a new poem as poets read and talk about their work. This series is a co-production with the Poetry Foundation, publisher of Poetry Magazine. In July, the featured poets are Tyehimba Jess, francine j harris, Carmen Gimenez Smith, Cynthia Cruz, and Ocean Vuong.

LA Opera on Air

This summer, hear five productions from the Los Angeles Opera, part of WFMT's annual American Opera series. General director Plácido Domingo takes the stage in the title role in Puccini's comedy Gianni Schicchi to lead off, part of a double bill whose other half is Leoncavallo's Pagliacci. Upcoming are Bellini's Norma, Verdi's I Due Foscari, Moby Dick by American composer Jake Heggie, and Verdi's Falstaff. The Verdi performances are archive presentations; the others are from the company's 2015-16 season.

Dallas in Chicago

A 13-week series of broadcast concerts by the Dallas Symphony Orchestra begins this month on WFMT. Featuring music director Jaap van Zweden, the series is hosted by Wade Goodwyn. Among the July broadcasts is a concert presentation of Bartok's opera Bluebeard's Castle, with Matthias Goerne and Michelle DeYoung; Bluebeard's Castle had its North American premiere in Dallas. The series begins with Van Zweden leading a performance of Mahler's Symphony #9; August Hadelich and Emanuel Ax are the soloists on subsequent concerts. The Dallas Symphony is among the largest performing-arts organizations in the Southwest. Founded at the turn of the last century, it performs in Dallas' Morton H Meyerson Symphony Center, in cities and towns throughout northern Texas, at the Bravo! Vail summer music festival, and on tour in Europe.

Grant Park Music Festival Live: Rachel Barton Pine and Max Bruch

International violin star Rachel Barton Pine is a native Chicagoan and maintains many connections to the city's musical endeavors, including the Grant Park Orchestra. She's a soloist with the ensemble this month, playing a favorite work of violinists and audiences alike, the Concerto in G Minor by Max Bruch. Leading the orchestra on this occasion will be Michal Nesterowicz, winner of several European competitions and associated with major orchestras in Spain as well as in his native Poland. He'll open the concert with Little Suite by his countryman Witold Lutoslawski and end it with Schumann's Fourth Symphony.

Grant Park Music Festival Live: Bruckner

Since Anton Bruckner was a composer during the Romantic era, and very much a practitioner of the lush late-Romantic style, it's a little odd that just one of his symphonies is singled out with the nickname of Romantic. This is his Symphony #4 in E-Flat, probably the best-known and best-liked of all his works, and the one that marked his first major success. It's actually a nickname used by the composer himself, who had originally conceived an extra-musical program for the work based on images and tales from the Middle Ages: the first movement is meant to evoke "dawn at a medieval citadel...knights sally forth from the gates on proud chargers." The second movement evokes a lovers' duet, and the third, the most obviously descriptive, portrays a medieval hunt in which horn calls are especially prominent. Guest conductor Christoph König returns to Pritzker Pavilion to conduct this work, opening the program with Haydn.

Chicago Symphony Orchestra Radio Broadcasts: Morlot and Koh

A conductor who's received increased attention in recent seasons is Ludovic Morlot, music director the past four years of the Seattle Symphony, with which he has made highly acclaimed recordings of both symphonic classics and new works. Morlot, who began his musical studies on the violin, is in demand internationally as a guest conductor. On a 2015 visit to Chicago he conducted Beethoven's Symphony #3, Eroica, a Berlioz overture, and The Seamstress for violin and orchestra by Anna Clyne, a former CSO composer-in-residence. It was commissioned by the CSO, which was joined by violinist Jennifer Koh for the premiere. The work is in one continuous movement and is described by its composer as an imaginary ballet, showing the tales envisioned by a seamstress as she works. It's scored for the soloist, a very large orchestra, and electronics.

Marin Alsop

Grant Park Music Festival Live: Marin Alsop Guest-Conducting

Alsop is music director of the Baltimore Symphony and of Brazil's Sao Paulo Symphony, which she has led several times on European tours. She's a native of New York City, an alumna of Yale University and the Juilliard School, and studied conducting at the Berkshire Music Center (Tanglewood) with Leonard Bernstein, of whose music she's a frequent interpreter. As a guest conductor, she's visited the BBC Promenade Concerts on a number of occasions. She'll be spending a week at the GPMF, leading a multimedia work by Philip Glass and also a weekend program anchored by Dvorak's New World Symphony. This will be preceded with music by Duke Ellington performed by violinist Regina Carter, and works by another African-American composer, James P. Johnson.

Thomas Wilkins

Grant Park Music Festival Live: From the South Shore Cultural Center

Music by Berlioz, Mendelssohn, Saint-Saens, Lehar, and Michael Daugherty will be led by guest conductor Thomas Wilkins when the Grant Park Orchestra visits the South Shore Cultural Center. This will be WFMT's first live broadcast from this venue, which was built in 1905 as the South Shore Country Club. In 1975 it was sold to the Chicago Park District, which preserved the main building (built in the Mediterranean Revival architectural style). The center now houses a School of the Arts that encompasses a theater, a gallery, and an art studio. This is in addition to the center's beach, restaurant, picnic areas, public golf course, and nature center. Great space for a summer concert!
