DAY 12: MONDAY, MAY 7, 2018

After breakfast, check out of your hotel and meet your Driver. Enjoy your group transfer together to London's Heathrow Airport ahead of your return flight home. Separate transfers can be arranged at an additional cost. Bon Voyage!

Enjoy a Private Tour and Lunch at Chavenage House

Chavenage is a Tudor manor house of classic golden sand colored Cotswold stone that has remained virtually unchanged for 400 years. Only two families have owned Chavenage and it is still a family home. Of particular interest is the Main Hall with its stained-glass windows, the Ballroom and the Oak Room with its elaborate panel. Recently it was used as the setting for the wildly successful BBC adaptation of Poldark. Your hosts, who still live in the house to this day, will show you around their wonderful and historic home and gardens and entertain you for lunch in the wonderful Oak Room.

Accommodation at Calcot Manor in Gloucestershire

Dating back to the 14th century, Calcot Manor is more than a country house hotel set in over 220 acres of Cotswolds meadowland. The golden Cotswold stone of this charming manor - originally a farmhouse - creates an atmosphere of solidity and tranquility. The outbuildings have been transformed to complement the main house. Calcot Spa, with its pool, sauna, steam room, gym and hot tub, offers a wide range of treatments.

With a wealth of interesting places surrounding Calcot - the historic city of Bath, the ancient wool towns of the Cotswolds and the Cotswold Way footpath, the hotel is a perfect place from which to explore. Antique-hunting in nearby towns can absorb many enjoyable hours, as can walking or relaxing by the pool or a log fire. There are two restaurants at Calcot: the pub-style Gumstool Inn and the elegant Conservatory Restaurant, offering very different dining experiences.
